Presenter: Matthew Olovson, JD
Executive Director, Equal Opportunity & Access
Office of Equity & Inclusion

This 90 minute seminar, facilitated by the Office of Equal Opportunity & Access, provides foundational information on University of Cincinnati policy, expectations, and procedures for ensuring equity and inclusion across the campus community. Presenters will discuss best practices for culturally-aware campus engagement, individual and institutional responsibilities in the prevention and remediation of prohibited conduct, and campus resources administering institutional non-discrimination and anti-harassment policy. Designed to facilitate dialogue and participant engagement, this session discusses efforts by the University to prevent and remediate prohibited conduct, providing strategies for building and maintaining inclusive living, learning, and working environments at UC.
