

INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE WORKSHOP

THE MULTIGENERATIONAL WORKFORCE

JULY 11, 2:00 PM – 3:30 PM, TEACHER'S/DYER COMPLEX ROOM 160

PRESENTER: BLEUZETTE MARSHALL, PhD

In this interactive workshop, participants develop an understanding of differences and similarities across generations by reviewing core values and motivators that enhance communication, reduce conflict and strengthen work teams.

Bleuzette Marshall is the Vice President for Equity & Inclusion at the University of Cincinnati. In this role, she manages the offices of Equal Opportunity & Access, Title IX and Diversity & Inclusion; monitors the University's Diversity Plan; co-chairs the President's Diversity Council; provides strategic leadership for the recruitment, retention, and advancement of diverse talent (students, faculty, and staff); assists with supplier diversity efforts; serves as a resource to benchmark trends and promote best practices; and builds partnerships in the broader community. Bleuzette holds three degrees from UC including a BA in psychology (1992), an MEd (2001) in educational foundations, and a PhD in educational studies (2009).
