Be the CHANGE
Change Begins Here!

You’ve laid the foundation for your career; you’ve gained some professional experience; you’ve learned from your leaders and mentors; you want more for yourself and your family. Earning an advanced degree will not only provide you with more career opportunities, but it will give you the credibility and knowledge to change the industry.

The College of Education, Criminal Justice, Human Services, and Information Technology (CECH) can open doors of opportunity in several fields of study and help you achieve your goals.

You will learn from evidence-based research with nationally recognized faculty, committed to advancing your skills and expertise, while taking you beyond the classroom to improve outcomes for the communities we all serve. Your graduate program will empower you to develop innovative plans and ideas for making your workplace run more efficiently and effectively.

Academic Programs to Support your Interests and Career Goals

With two master degree options (onsite and online), a doctoral program and three graduate certificates, you’re sure to find the right program for you in the School of Criminal Justice. Whether you are striving to take your career to a new level or seeking a career change, the unique opportunities that define our School of Criminal Justice await you.

Student-Centered Community

Join us, and you’ll find yourself a part of a community where learning and teaching blend seamlessly with research and practice in an organization making a difference in the Greater Cincinnati area and beyond. Our faculty and staff are committed to helping you achieve your educational goals, explore new opportunities, and discover research interests.

Community is at the heart of all we do. It’s who we are.
A graduate degree from the University of Cincinnati can be just the credential that makes you stand out. Whether you want to enhance your skills or expand your expertise, UC offers many ways to use your intellect to follow your passion.

From our nationally ranked programs to our renowned faculty, CECH can offer you an educational experience that goes beyond the classroom. Our graduate programs incorporate experiential learning and research opportunities, many of which can provide funding with tuition costs.

In the School of Criminal Justice, our goal is to motivate students to achieve new intellectual levels and to maximize their opportunities for success within and beyond the graduate program. We want our students to play an integral role in shaping the future of criminal justice research and education.
The School of Criminal Justice offers programs at the bachelor, master and doctoral level, as well as several graduate certificates. Top-ranked industry experts and scholars teach in our programs, and the curriculum centers around evidence-based practices. Our work advances criminal justice by developing policies, techniques, and training that translates research into practice. We are committed to helping you reach new levels as a scholar and leader and maximize your opportunities for success. UC is also home to several state-of-the-art criminal justice research centers and institutes:

- Center for Criminal Justice Research
- Corrections Institute
- Institute of Crime Science

Learn more about our academic offerings: cech.uc.edu/cj
Master's Programs

Our Master of Science in Criminal Justice degree can be completed on-campus or 100% online, making it flexible enough to meet the needs of full-time graduate students or working professionals. The program consists of 30 credit hours and can be completed within one year of full-time study; however, part-time options are also available for the online program. Our coursework approaches the study of crime and criminal justice from an interdisciplinary perspective, drawing insights from sociology, law, public administration, and criminal justice. You will learn to generate, use, and critically examine research that you can use to teach in the classroom, obtain a leadership position, or change and facilitate current policies, methods, and practices in the field of criminal justice.

Doctoral Programs

Our Doctor of Philosophy in Criminal Justice program develops social scientists that have the ability to consume, transmit, and independently produce research knowledge on crime and criminal justice. Our goal is to ensure that all of our graduates receive rigorous training to prepare them for careers in academia and/or agency-based research. Through electives and dissertation research, students have the flexibility to develop expertise consistent with their unique interests.

Symone Pate
PhD Student, MS and BS graduate in Criminal Justice

I have established great relationships with students, faculty, and staff within CECH, that I’ll carry with me throughout my life.
Invest in yourself. Graduate training is growing in significance in the field of criminal justice. Our students become adept at understanding research-based knowledge and how it applies to real-world situations. The interdisciplinary nature of our program allows students to pursue their unique interests in areas such as:

- Criminal Justice
- Criminology
- Corrections
- Crime Prevention
- Policing

Olivia Sizemore
BS Criminal Justice and BA Psychology graduate

Our faculty are knowledgeable and are willing to help every student reach their fullest potential.

$72K AVERAGE SALARY NATIONWIDE

OVER 100K JOB POSTINGS SEEKING MSCJ GRADS

Ready to begin? Complete the Graduate Application to advance your career to the next level!

>> Application details: grad.uc.edu/apply
Graduate Funding
Funding for graduate and professional students may be awarded by your individual academic program, the Graduate School, or the Student Financial Aid Office.

Graduate Awards
The School of Criminal Justice provides generous financial awards to qualified students in the on-campus graduate programs. Students who desire financial aid should complete their admission application as early as possible to be considered.

Underrepresented Minority Scholarships
Graduate programs nominate incoming students for the Graduate School's Underrepresented Minority Scholarships. The following scholarships are available to incoming master and doctoral students.

- Graduate Dean’s Excellence Scholarship: Open to incoming doctoral students. Provides a one-time supplementary award of $3,000 in the student's first fall semester.

- Provost Graduate Fellowship: Open to incoming PhD students. This three-year fellowship provides a full tuition scholarship and an annual stipend of $25,000.

- Yates Fellowship Program: This fellowship is awarded to 25 students each year. Master’s students receive a full tuition scholarship for two years, plus a stipend. Doctoral students receive a full tuition scholarship for four years, plus a stipend.

For More Information About Funding Opportunities Visit: grad.uc.edu/prospective/funding
School of Education

Doctoral Degree Programs
Educational Studies (PhD)
• Curriculum Studies and Teacher Education
• Developmental & Learning Sciences
• Educational & Community-Based Action Research (ECAR)
• Educational Policy & Higher Education
• Instructional Design & Technology
• Literacy
• Quantitative & Mixed Methods Research Methodologies
• Second Language Studies
• Special Education

Graduate Certificates
• Applied Research Methods
• Educational Psychology & Child Studies
• Education & Social Change
• Higher Education Administration
• Instructional Design & Technology
• Design & Development
• Teaching
• Literacy & Second Language Studies
• PreK-16 Literacy & Instruction
• PreK-12 Teaching English as a Second Language

Special Education*
• General Studies (with options for licensure)
• Supporting Students with Complex Needs
• Transition to Work + SPED Leadership

Graduate Certificates
• Autism Spectrum Disorders*
• Blended Online Learning & Teaching*
• Gifted Education*
• Higher Education Leadership
• Medical Education*
• PreK-12 Reading Instruction*
• STEM*
• Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)*

Endorsements
• Early Childhood Generalist*
• Gifted Education*
• Middle Childhood Generalist*
• PreK-12 Reading Instruction*
• Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)*

Licenses
• K-12 Intervention Specialist (Mild/Moderate 2nd License)*
• Post-Masters Principal License*

Master Degree Programs
Foundations in Behavior Analysis*
Community Health & Prevention Science
Health & Wellness Management
Mental Health Counseling
Public Health
• Health Promotion & Education
School Counseling
School Psychology
Sports Administration*

Graduate Certificate
Behavior Analysis*

School of Information Technology

Doctoral Degree Program
Information Technology

Master Degree Program
Information Technology*

Graduate Certificate
Computer Science*
Information Technology*

School of Criminal Justice

Doctoral Degree Program
Criminal Justice

Master Degree Program
Criminal Justice*

Graduate Certificates
Analysis of Criminal Behavior*
Correctional Rehabilitation*
Crime Analysis & Prevention*

School of Human Services

Doctoral Degree Program
Counselor Education
Health Education
School Psychology

*Online Only
Campus & Online Options

The University of Cincinnati does not discriminate on the basis of disability, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, veteran status or gender identity and expression in its programs and activities. The following persons have been designated to handle inquiries regarding the University's non-discrimination policies:

Section 504, ADA, Age Act Coordinator
340 University Hall, 51 Goodman Drive
Cincinnati, OH 45221-0039
Phone: (513)556-6381; Email: HRONESTP@ucmail.uc.edu
Title IX Coordinator
3115 Edwards 1, 45 Corry Blvd.
Cincinnati, OH 45221
Phone: (513) 556-3349; Email: title9@ucmail.uc.edu

For further information on notice of non-discrimination, visit http://wdcrobcolp01.ed.gov/CFAPPS/OCR/contactus.cfm for the address and phone number of the office that serves the University, or call 1-800-421-3481.