School Counseling

The School Counseling program prepares future school counselors to support students to succeed in areas of academic achievement, career preparation, and social and emotional development. The faculty is committed to train school counselors to become social justice leaders capable of assessing and implementing data-driven programs that provide equitable services for all.

Students will be equipped with individual and group counseling skills and effective at collaboration with teachers, parents, and other stakeholders. The program prepares graduate students to be multiculturally competent and help close achievement, opportunity, attainment and funding gaps in their schools, districts and communities.

Be EXPERIENCE<sup>D</sup>

We know that education is not always found in the classroom. Through our strong school counseling partnerships and high-quality graduates, our program is recognized as a leader within the community. Additionally, our program includes specialized coursework and internship experiences to help students gain the knowledge and skills to aid elementary, middle, and high school students face grade-level transitions, explore and prepare for future careers as well as college, and thrive in their lives overall.

“ In the program, I was able to learn from many professors, participate in conferences, and gain mentorship from working professionals. All of these opportunities have truly helped me to feel more confident and competent in my current role! ”

Be INVEST<sup>ED</sup>

Invest in yourself and your career. Before you graduate, you will build a resume that sets you apart, make connections that can help lead to job offers, learn what you like most about your field, and gain the confidence only experience provides. Work in a variety of occupations, including:
